

Paris

LIFE & LUXURY

Enter the elegant world of a fashionable 18th-century Parisian household at the J. Paul Getty Museum. Experience a day in the life of the elite—from dressing and dining, to music, gaming, and more. Bringing this world to life is the furniture, jewelry, and fashions by the period's great artists and craftsmen. It's a typical day in a privileged Parisian home—and a not so typical day at the museum.

Admission to the Getty Center

Admission to the Getty Center and to all exhibitions is FREE—no tickets or reservations are required for general admission.

For more info, please visit getty.edu.

Inside image, left page:

Portrait of Gabriel Bernard de Rieux, (detail) 1739–1741, Maurice-Quentin de La Tour. Pastel and gouache on paper mounted on canvas. The J. Paul Getty Museum, Los Angeles

Inside image, right page:

Portrait of Madame Bonnier de la Mosson as Diana (Constance-Gabrielle-Magdeleine du Monciel de Lauraille), (detail) 1742, Jean-Marc Nattier. Oil on canvas. The J. Paul Getty Museum, Los Angeles

Sponsored by

Family

Education at the J. Paul Getty Museum

Did you like this game?

Check out more fun art games for kids online at getty.edu/gettygames

The Getty

You are invited ...

Find out what a day in the life of an elegant Parisian family in the 1700s was like in

Paris

LIFE & LUXURY

at the

J. Paul Getty Museum

Start by checking out the fancy furniture, fashion, silver, games, and instruments—then try the special activity just for kids inside this invitation!

Instructions:

- 1) Hunt for the paintings pictured on the inside of this invitation in the exhibition.
- 2) Look very closely at the pictures in your hand, and compare them to the matching paintings on the wall—can you spot 6 differences in each one?
- 3) Take this booklet with you to the Museum Store after completing the activity to receive a special prize!

Find the paintings...

Portrait of Gabriel Bernard de Rieux

Spot the differences!

Portrait of Madame Bonnier de la Mosson as Diana (Constance-Gabrielle-Magdeleine du Monciel de Lauraille)